

The Commissioning Ceremony for the Project for Construction of Classrooms for Primary Schools in Oyo State (Commissioning Ceremony)

Date: 4th July, 2016

Venue: St. Luke Primary School, Oyo State

Summary: Due to the increase of the number of students and shortage of classrooms, Oyo State has not been able to maintain the quality of primary education. As a response to that, the Government of Japan has extend the aid of JPY 1.277 billion (equivalent of USD 13.2 million) to build 231 classrooms and 218 toilet booths in 30 primary schools in Oyo State to improve the quality of education.

H. E. Mr. Sadanobu Kusaoke, Ambassador of Japan to Nigeria, and H. E. Senator. Abiola Ajimobi, Governor of Oyo State, attended the ceremony. It was widely reported by local media.

Welcomed by the students

VIP guests

Speech by Mr. Bobby Ologun

Speech by the Ambassador Kusaoke

Speech by the Executive Governer

Dance and song by the students

Tape cutting ceremony

One of the classrooms at the school

Photo cession

School ground at the ceremony

A classroom at the school

Chairs and desks provided by the Government of Japan