

[2nd ASIAN FILM FESTIVAL]

[COME AND DISCOVER THE JAPANESE SPIRIT]

On December 13, 2018 the Embassy of Japan will feature a FREE ENTRY Japanese Movie screening as part of the 2nd Asian Film Festival in Nigeria.

Titled “BUSHIDO SIXTEEN”, Japanese movie lovers and enthusiasts are invited to come and see, experience, and have an insight on the Art of the popular Japan’s Bushido spirit.

Synopsis:

Originally adapted from a (Japanese manga) novel, the story revolves around two girls; Kaori (Riko Narumi), an intense kendo fighter who has been training since she was young. Sanae (Kie Kitano), a girl who has only participated in kendo casually, but somehow manages to beat Kaori in the final tournament of junior high school. Although Sanae doesn’t particularly care about it, Kaori holds a grudge, which sets up an intricate and particular rivalry that bleeds over into high school.

Date: December 13th 2018, Time: 7.00pm.

Venue: Korean Cultural Centre Studio, 2nd floor, River state Building, Central Business District, Abuja.

Japanese cuisine and drinks (Sushi & Sake) will be provided before the screening.

FREE ENTRY!

